Gladys Holt Weds Milk River Man In Cardston Temple

One of the loveliest ceremonies of the season saw Gladys, daughter of Mrs. Sarah B. Holt and the late Frank Holt, exchange vows with Woodrow S. Stringham, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stringham, of Milk River, in the Alberta Temple at Cardston, on Wednesday December 1st.

President Lloyd Cahoon performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives.

Upon their return from the temple they all met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Salmon where a delicious meal awaited them.

At 7:30 in the evening the Stake House was packed with the many friends of the young couple who came to extend their very best wishes and enjoy the program.

The radiant bride chose a full length chantilly lace white gown fashioned with bouffant skirt with net inserts and accented pleats in back. The bodice had long lily-point sleeves and Peter Pan collar. Her three quarter length illusion net veil was held in place by a sequin encrusted Juliet cap and her bouquet was of red roses and white carnations with long white satin ribbon streamers.

June Fawns in a yellow formal served as matron of honor, while Elaine Salmon in a black and white nylon gown and Myrna Matheson in a blue taffeta and net gown were bridesmaids. Each carried bouquets of pink carnations. Carole, Marie and Linda Holt in floor length pink nylon dresses were charming little flower girls for their auntie.

Bryant Stringham supported his brother as best man.

Murry Holt, Mrs. Sarah Holt and Mr. and Mrs. George Stringham joined in the receiving line. Both the bride's and the groom's mothers were attired in black dresses with red and pink rose corsages.

Phyllis Salmon and Necla Holt served pieces of wedding cake and lovely little "Thank you" cards by the lace covered table which held the beautifully decorated three tiered wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Holt of Calgary were in charge of the luncheon table and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Salmon and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stringham, of Milk River, greeted the guests at the door.

Mrs. Leah Jones of Vauxhall looked after her sisters guest book.

Maxine Dahl, Barbara Rodeback and Edna Macleod arranged the numerous gifts.

Ella Hancock, Lulu Stevensen, Idale Kenney, Zina Anderson were kitchen workers with Myrna Hancock, Janice Rudd, Wyona Graham and Kathleen Fairbanks helping.

High School Report

The theme of the Freshie Frolic this month was "Winter Wonderland". A good crowd attended. The Raymond orchestra played. Decorations were two white snow men on dark paper. Balloons fell from the center to be popped for money prizes, confetti, or a bang!

The Raymond High Students wish to express their deep sympathy to Mrs. Fanny Walker toward the loss of her husband. The entire school will miss President Walker. His presence at all the basketball games was something we all appreciated and enjoyed.

The Year Book for 1954 and 1955 will be greatly improved with many more pictures. The students and teachers wish to thank the Raymond merchants for their support toward not only our new Year Book, but our monthly school paper. This book is something every student should have. For years to come you will enjoy the school pictures and articles.

The school teams are really coming along fine this season. The High School "A" team whipped Readymade at basketball some time ago. Cardston Friday Dec 17 "A" team and "B" team each versus a Cardston team, proved to be an exciting night. Raymond was victorious in both games.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Salmon have recently returned from a two weeks trip east. They took the Empire Builder from Shelby to Toronto where they met their son Gary who had recently released from his labours as a L.D.S. missionary, in that district. They bought a new Niagra Meteor car for the return trip. They enjoyed a visit to Niagara Falls, Kitchener, Polmyra, and other points of interest. Gary returned home with them. They were accompanied on this trip by their daughter Elaine.

Touring The Town With Amy

—Amy Campbell

Beaming faces and laughing voices indicate the glowing Christmas spirit in our hearts. One of the best parts of preparing for Christmas is shopping for others.

Hi-Q! How's yours? Find out whether you're a dumbell, an average Joe or worthy of taking a deep bow, by seeing Ernie at the Coffee Shop. Ernie is selling these games for only $3.98. You'll be surprised at the amount of entertainment adults and children alike will derive from Ernie's game.

The prize of a lifetime is the $49.50 Stainless Steel Kitchen Ware Set at the Hardware Department of the Raymond Mercantile. It is the first in Canada with the exclusive hidden quality of an inner core that conducts heat quickly. This hardest of all metals, Stainless Steel resists food acids, odors, heat, tarnish, stains, and scratches due to friction. This Kitchenware is easy to clean and retains its lustrous beauty. Choose this set as the perfect Christmas gift; for these new creations of Canadian craftsmanship so fine in beauty of design - so superior in modern cooking efficiency - are worthy to rank as prized possessions in any home through a lifetime of enduring service.

A Christmas gift anybody would appreciate is one of the handgrain leather billboards on display at the Raymond Pharmacy. The top grain leather is of stitchless construction. Either zipper style or the folding type with the secret currency pocket and expansion strap is available. These billboards are designed for every taste in both color and styling.

Shine those floors! Stones Service Store can help you do this by selling you an electric floor polisher for only $44.50. The twin brushes, and lamb's wool pads will give a buffing like glass. An ideal and economic Christmas gift for mother.

The beautiful Lady Galt Towels and Face cloths on display at the Merc are almost too lovely to use. All manner of designs and colors, truly a gift that would be appreciated.

Many Pay Last Respects To Stake President

J. H. WALKER

The huge crowd and the many floral tributes at his funeral were indications of the love and esteem in which Pres. James H. Walker was held by the people of this, and other communities. The Stake House was packed to absolute capacity on Sunday December 5, when Bishop Rulon H. Dahl of the Third Ward officiated at the impressive services. The Stake Choir, conducted by W. C. Stone with Emma Dahl at the organ.

In his opening remarks Bishop Dahl spoke of the large congregation and the flowers and their tribute to a great man of Alberta, Canada, and the world.

The opening song was "Oh My Father" with Jeannine Jensen as soloist and Bishop Wm Jensen offered the opening prayer.

President John L. Allen welcomed the distinguished guests, both of a religious calling and of the business and government. He said that the congregation was the largest ever assembled in the Stake House, as was fitting to honor a good and fine man and an inspired leader. He said Pres. Walker did not aspire to greatness or honors of men but that these things had come to him because of his service to men — he was a great servant, unselfish, unlimited and unsurpassed in his love of his fellowmen, and so was greatly loved through out the country.

Pres. Allen told of a lady who wept at the time Pres. Walker was released at that time about a person being of such importance but said that after seven and a half years of working with him he could readily understand the woman's feelings.

Pres Walker was a humble man who enjoyed life but never failed to kneel and pray for inspiration to lead and guide the Stake and he was amply rewarded for his faith. Pres. Allen himself out in the service of the people enriched by the close association of three Stake presidents, his father, T. Geo. Wood and Pres Walker, each playing an important part in his development.

Speaking of Pres Walker as a family man he said that he was an excellent husband, father and grandfather, who loved his family and home-life. He had taught his grandchildren to sing 50 songs — deriving much pleasure from the association of the young people.

Pres Allen said that in all probability Pres. Walker had literally worn himself out in the service of the people of this Stake for he had spent countless hours working on their behalf.

In closing he paid tribute to Mrs. Walker and the family. He said that if there was a perfect woman on the earth, in his opinion she was the one.

Wm. A. Anderson spoke to the congregation as his brothers and sisters for that is the way Pres. Walker thought of them no matter their creed or race. Mr Anderson outlined the life of Pres. Walker telling the highlights of a very full and eventful life.

In telling of his sports abilities he said that while on his mission in the Netherlands Pres. Walker ran a 100 yard dash in his street clothes, winning over the runners in the race. Through the years he had spent much time in the training of the young people both in sports and in cultural pursuits. One of the biggest jobs Pres. Walker undertook was the improving of church buildings throughout the Stake and the building of the new recreation hall. When he was asked on one occasion why the recreation hall had to be so big and so fine he said that the best boys and girls on earth would be using it and there was nothing too good for them.

Mr Anderson expressed his appreciation for his association with Pres. Walker through the years, he had been closely associated with members of the family in various church activities, he had been in Pres. Walker's classes and lived as neighbors to them. He said that the world had lost a great neighbor and a great leader who placed his confidence in people and usually had the pleasure of seeing that trust pay-off. He looked for the good in all people, no matter where they came from or what religious belief they had. He had a great influence on the lives of all people in this area. He had obeyed every law and is entitled to every blessing.

Mr. Anderson told of the closeness between Pres. and Mrs. Walker and how their way of life set a pattern for many couples for many years. He said that Mrs. Walker was indeed a helpmate for the President in all that he did.

The Glee-ette Club, conducted by Catherine Keeler and accompanied by Rojana Bingham, sang "Beyond the Sunset" with Betty Evans doing the reading, "Should You Go First".

Bishop J. Golden Snow said that one of the highest honors to come to him was to have the opportunity to pay tribute to the late Pres. Walker. He said that one of the greatest blessings ever to come to him was his call to be bishop and it came through the ministry of Pres. Walker. Their paths had crossed and where Pres. Walker led the way he was happy to follow. He paid high tribute to Mrs. Walker as a wonderful mother of a fine and noble family. Never had people had kinder or more considerate friends and neighbors. Pres. Walker had worn himself out in the service of his fellowmen with the Welfare program as one of his greatest jobs.

Bishop Snow related that he had worked with him in Athletics and had seen in him one of the finest competitors who advocated fair play and the living of clean lives, and lived what he advised "hers to live."

He said that this Stake and southern Alberta must thank Pres. Walker and others, for the new recreation hall which is a monument to his presidency and an honor to the Church.

"All that we put into the lives of others comes back into our own". The vast interest and keen appreciation he had for his fellowmen built for him a store of happiness that will know no bounds throughout all eternity.

Bishop J. O. Hicken said that he sincerely agreed with all that had been said by the other speakers. He said that Pres. Walker had had great wisdom in choosing his two counselors and secretary who helped him greatly in the Lords work in this Stake. He said that Pres. Walker had understood the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its fullest, he believed in a literal Father in Heaven and that all mankind had dwelt with Him in the beginning and that He taught His spirit children. The plan that was made then is now being carried out by spirits who come to earth to take on mortal bodies so that they can pass into eternal life. While on this earth men must walk by faith in God whose gospel is open to all mankind for: He is no respecter of persons.

In speaking of the resurrection, Bishop Hicken said spirits of all men good and evil, are taken home to the God that gave them life, the good (continued on page three)

Sylvia Christensen, Wrentham Girl, Wed In Lethbridge

The Lounge Room of the L. D. S. Church in Lethbridge, graced with vases of pink and white carnations and baskets of yellow daffodils, was the scene, of the lovely winter wedding of Sylvia Marie Christensen of Wrentham and Sheldon Dean Rogers son of Mr and Mrs. Waldo Hazel, of Scotts village, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed in the presence of friends and relatives by Bishop A. N. Green.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was stunning in a strapless gown of nylon net over satin featuring a lace jacket and lace insets in the full skirt.

Her finger tip veil fell gracefully from a pearl studded teretia. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. Her attendants were Mrs. Louise Christensen as matron of honor with Delores Christensen and Ann Klico as bridesmaids. They chose balerina length gowns of mauve, blue and yellow net over taffeta with bandeaus of pink and white baby mums, which matched the bouquets they carried. Two tiny flower girls, Diana Rockenback, and Joan Adams wore ballet length gowns of rose and blue taffeta with mauve and blue bandeaus which matched their nosegays of baby mums.

The groom was attended by Marvin Christensen, brother of the bride.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Merna Erickson, while Rex Christensen and Chas. Tudor Jr. acted as ushers.

The M Men and Gleaners and Jr. M Men held a fireside recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Salmon. Gary Salmon who recently returned from the Eastern Canadian mission showed films he had taken.

In a recently invented battery used to harness the sun by use of silicon coated strips, a square yard of silicon coated material is sufficient to power a desk lamp.

Mr and Mrs Gerald Gibb were hosts to their Sunday Night Club recently. Mr and Mrs Gerald Snow were special guests. The lesson was given by J. L. Gibb of Welling.

Amid the hurly-burly of Canadian life the woodsman's axe rings a tune that reverberates throughout the land as pulpwood loggers, racing against time harvest the wood for the pulp and paper industry. But on Christmas day the woods are silent, axes and buck-saws are put aside, and the men join their families and friends to worship and celebrate.

Of course, most homes in pulpwood areas sport a Christmas tree, cut from the scientifically managed forests of the pulp and paper company that surround the community. And no Christmas season is complete without the "revelion", a visit from Santa, square dancing at home with close relatives and neighbors joining in the festivities the snow shoe races and buck-saw contests.

Each family has its own Christmas party and houses ring with laughter as the happy children empty their Christmas stockings and open presents. And later in the day everyone gathers at the community hall where the Christmas party and concert lasts far into the night.

GLADYS HOLT

Emma Dahl played the interlude music and the traditional wedding march when the principles and party took their seats for the program.

Wm Anderson very ably conducted the following program; first introduced the Stringham families. Frank Taylor offered the opening prayer followed a solo from Gary Stringham of Hill-spring "One Alone". An original reading by Mrs. Lucy Stevens was very much enjoyed. Gen Hawkins. Laura Watson and Jeannine Jensen favored with a trio, "The Day of Gold en Promise". Nyal Fletcher of Mag-rath entertained with a violin inter-pretation of the "Mocking Bird". Grace Allen gave a humorous musical read-ing "Somebody Stole Them Wedding Bells". Ruth Heninger of Lethbridge sang the beautiful "God Gave Me You" Mary Stringham of Nemiscam gave a delightful rendition of "My Wonder-ful One" on the musical saw followed by the ever beautiful "Claire de Lune" piano solo by Kay Salmon.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Bishop Orvin Hicken to which the groom graciously responded.

The closing number was a solo "Because" by Jeannine Jensen and Bishop Rulon Dahl closed with prayer

For her honeymoon trip to Calif-ornia Mrs. Stringham donned a cloudy rose suit dress topped by a fur jacket with matching accessories compliment ed by a red rosebud corsage.

The newly weds will reside in Milk River where the bride-groom is a well known business man and farmer.

Out of town guests were from; Picture Butte, Milk River, Lethbridge, Magrath, Hillspring, Nemiscam, Taber Warner, Fort Macleod and Vauxhall.

Following is a letter received by Della Woolf, librarian. The letter speaks for itself — Congratulations, Della!

Department of Economic Affairs,
Edmonton, Alberta.
October 28, 1954.

Mrs. D. B. Woolf, Librarian,
Raymond Public Library,
Raymond, Alberta.

Dear Mrs. Woolf:

Raymond Public Library was indeed a pleasure to visit, truly an ideal toward which many of the small public libraries must work. I was impressed by the size and the variety of the collection. Also, to see the work you do with periodicals is a refreshing experience especially since they are neglected materials in nearly all small libraries. Truly your circulation of library materials is amazing.

Of course there are some things I could suggest, but I know, Mrs. Woolf, that you are aware of these problems. Everything cannot be done at once. I recommend, however, that you, for the sake of eliminating unnecessary work, as well as preserving the books endeavor to provide small sections in the picture book shelves in which to place the materials for the very young people, the sections are usually placed 6-8 inches apart. Likely by now those shelves have been prepared for I remember discussing the problem with you.

Certainly I am looking forward to being in Raymond again at a time when I may meet your forward look-ing board. Also I will give you advance notice of my arrival in the future. In the meantime please feel free to contact me regarding problems which may arise.

Best wishes for your continued suc-cess in providing library service to Raymond and district.

Very sincerely yours,

Harry B. Newsom,
Supervisor of Public Libraries.

Hot Sausage Biscuits The Birthday Club was entertained by Eulala Nakder recently. Clayte Ralph was the honored guest and re-ceived a gift. After lunch Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Rich biscuit dough:

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons shortening
3/4 cup milk

From sausage meat into tiny flat cakes and cook until nearly, but not quite, done.

Prepare biscuit dough as follows: sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening, using a pastry blender or two knives. Stir in milk quickly. Roll out one-quarter inch thick on floured board. Cut out biscuits with biscuit cutter (about two and half inches in diameter).

Put sausage between biscuits, sand-wich fashion, and press dough tightly together around the edges. Prick with a fork on the top and bake on a greased baking sheet at 400 degree F. for 15 minutes. Makes from eight to ten sausage biscuit.

OCEAN BIRDS
Nothing touches me like these Birds which could nest in my hand, Who move down the seven seas, Knowing neither bough nor land. They are black and white and small And I cannot bear a note, Not a threnody at all From a single lifted throat. Yet they tilt against the surf With all music in their wings, Who have never felt green turf, Who are kin to all sea things, Who with any meager words Can explain or can express How this ocean holds small birds With such quiet tenderness?

STAKE PRESIDENT

ones go into a state of Paradise where happiness reigns while the evil ones are cast into darkness until the time of the resurrection when all people of the earth will be taken to the bar of judgement to receive their rewards.

Joseph McLean, accompanied by Emma Dahl, sang "Going Home" and Bishop Dahl expressed the appreciation of the family for the kindness shown by the people of this area to them through the years, as well as during the time of Pres. Walker's illness and passing. He said that Pres. Walker seemed to be on the mend, that the three weeks he had spent in the hospital had been a good rest for him but that the Lord had other plans.

Bishop Dahl said that he had followed the leadership of Pres. Walker since he was 8 years old and had never found anything lacking. He said death was only a change and that Pres. Walker is still a personality and an influence for good. He said Pres. Walker had lived one of the fullest and richest lives of anyone he had ever known and that there was no one present whose life hadn't been touched in measure by his influence.

President Palmer could not be present because of a heart attack he had suffered shortly before.

The choir sang "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go" with Herb Bishop singing the solo part and Melvin T. King offered the benediction.

Biography

"The Memory Of A Well Spent Life Never Dies"

These words of a famous writer certainly apply to President James H. Walker.

He was born in Coalville, Utah May 21, 1885. He was the eighth child of Robert Cowie Walker and Jane Wright Walker, converts to the Church from Scotland. His mother died when Pres. Walker was 15 years of age, and his father passed away about 6 months after he reached the mission field in the Netherlands. He was president of the Deacons Quorum counselor in the Y.M.M.I.A. and a Sunday School teacher in the Coalville Ward. He came to Canada in the spring of 1903, arriving here a few weeks before the disastrous May snow storm. He was called on a mission to the Netherlands and landed in Holland in Oct. 1907. He had been in the mission but 8 months when he was put in charge of the Branch at Leeuwarden. Later was transferred to Rotterdam, and was there appointed choir leader, where he had a choir of approximately 90 voices (most were trained singers). He was chosen as President of the Rotterdam District. When Sylvester Q. Cannon, President of the Netherlands mission was released. He was called to preside over the mission until the new president was sent from Utah. He had 86 missionaries and 2500 members of the Church in the mission to look after. He held this position for about 4 months until Pres. Guy B. Thatcher arrived. Then Pres. Walker was assigned the position as Traveling Elder, and he visited all the branches of the mission, scarcely sleeping in the same bed twice for about two months. After this assignment was finished he was called to act as President of the Amsterdam Conference, and served in this position until his release from his 3 year mission. While in Amsterdam he organized a choir of 85 voices. He returned from his mission in Oct. 1910, laden with many rich and lasting experiences, but very poor in a monetary way, as he had not eaten for 24 hrs, and had only a Canadian nickel and an English penny.

February 21, 1912, he was married to Fanny Harris in the Salt Lake City temple. They have had twelve children born to them; three boys passed away before maturity; the nine living children are: Dr. J. Harris Walker, Beth W. Zemp, Fay H. Walker, Mary W. Fairbanks, Jane W. McMullin, Dr.

Robert H. Walker, Ralph H. Walker, Reed H. Walker, and Dr. Glen H. Walker. Pres. Walker had 32 grandchildren, and he was always so proud of his children and grandchildren. And what a heritage he has in his family!

In May 1912, the Raymond Ward was divided and made the Raymond 1st and 2nd Wards. J. W. Evans was chosen as the bishop of the 2nd Ward and Pres. Walker was chosen as his 2nd counselor, and was set apart by Pres. David O. McKay, then a member of the quorum of the twelve. He served in this capacity for 12 years. In 1924, Dr. Evans was taken into the Presidency of the Stake, and Pres. Walker was chosen as the Bishop of the 2nd Ward and was set apart for this position by Pres. Stephen L. Richards, then a member of the quorum of the twelve, with Wilford A. Heninger and Leslie L. Palmer as his counselors and he held this position for 17 years. He with his counselors and the members of his Ward had just begun work on the beautiful Raymond 2nd Ward Chapel when the bad depression of the '30's began, but Pres. Walker's optimism and faith backed by the loyalty and perseverance of all the members of his Ward, saw the completion and use of this fine building while he was still bishop; also the completion and use of the cement glazed floor pavilion.

In 1940, Pres. Walker was elected to the Legislative Assembly of Alberta for the Warner Constituency, and served as Leader of the Opposition. Shortly after this, a large convention was held in Calgary, and Pres. Walker was chosen leader of the Independent Party of the Province.

He was released as Bishop in 1941, and was sustained as an Alternate High Councilman, which position he held until May 11, 1947, when he was chosen as President of the Taylor Stake, being set apart by Elder Ezra Taft Benson, a member of the Quorum of the Twelve, which position he filled until his death, December 1st, 1954.

During the time he was Stake Pres. the Stake purchased the building known as the Cheese Factory and converted it into the Church Welfare Center; making an up to date Cannery where all the people of the Stake can do their canning, a Storehouse well stocked for Welfare purposes of food and clothing, one of the best Locker plants in the South and also an egg grading station. The General Welfare Committee of the Church report this to be one of the best Welfare Homes in the Church. It has all been paid for and dedicated. Pres. Walker was very happy when this was completed, as this was a special assignment given him by the General Authorities.

In the Taylor Stake, the branches at Tyrell's Lake and Wrentham have remodeled and completed their chapels, Warner, Coultas and Milk River Branches have built new chapels, and Spring Coulee Branch has purchased a building and have it completed enough so that they are using it at the present time. The work on these chapels has been carried out under Pres. Walker's regime. Also the building of the new Stake Recreational Center one of the largest and best Social units in the Church; although not entirely finished, but where it is being used. Pres. Walker when asked why they were building such a fine building as this, answered, "we have the finest boys and girls in the church and we must have a fine place where they can play and have their recreation so we can keep them fine." He loved the youth and they loved him.

Pres. Walker played basketball the first year that High School basketball was organized in the State of Utah, he played with the Coalville High School, he also played in the 2nd team of the L.D.S. University of Salt Lake City, and with a team known as the Salt Lake City team. He coached the Raymond Basketball team for about 12 years. When Canada first found out Raymond had a ball team the Edmonton 49'ers, started on the Pacific coast and beat every team of any consequence from there to the Atlantic coast. On their way home, Pres. Walker says, "We wired them at Winnipeg and offered them $200.00 to come to Raymond and play with us. They accepted, we won the game, doubling the score on them; two weeks later, we returned the game, playing at Edmonton, and we won with a larger margin than at Raymond. The team that did the playing consisted of: Cliff Nalder, Wilford Meldrum, Earl Stevens, Devos Woolf, and Jas. H. Walker. There was no organized basketball league at that time for the Provincial or Dominion play-offs. From this time on Raymond has always been noted as having one of the best teams in Canada. Pres. Walker was a member of the famous Union Jacks. The last time he played was in 1922 at Edmonton when the team won the championship of Alberta.

When the M.I.A. held their Annual Track meets and Inter-Stake Track meets, Pres. Walker always took part in them, and he and the Skouson boys usually put Taylor Stake in the lead. When the Wasds were preparing for these track meets, it was a common sight to see a hundred or more boys and girls at the Walkers being trained by Pres. Walker for these events. When contest work was first begun in the M.I.A. Pres. Walker spent hour after hour training the young boys to sing quartets. Many of our men in Raymond today owe their being interested in singing to him. Pres. Walker not only helped to train the boys and girls, but he also entered events himself. He won the Baritone Solo for a number of years for the Stake.

When the Sugar City Municipality was organized, Pres. Walker was chosen as the Reeve of this Municipality. He served on the School Board for 3 years. He also served on the Executive of the Stampede Committee from 1913 until 1946; most of the time was secretary and Entry clerk, and during this time, the new grandstand at the Park was built. He also served as President of the Board of Trade for 5 years. It was during this time, while he held this office that he spent at least one third of his time on the project of trying to get a Sugar Factory to locate in this district; finally he, with his helpers induced the Utah Idaho Sugar Co. to build a plant in Raymond which completed in 1925. Pres. Walker was Assistant Secretary of the Institution and also assistant auditor until they sold out to the B. C. Sugar Refining Co. Ltd. What a wonderful benefit this factory has been to our Town and Community, and through it, the others have been established in Picture Butte and Taber. Pres. Walker worked so hard on this project, but never gave up, although some of the most prominent men tried to discourage him, and told him it was foolish of him to think he could get a factory to come in here when one had been dismantled and taken away; but never daunted his courage or enthusiasm. He only smiled and said, "it can be done". His hard work at this time probably helped to bring on his untimely death, for as soon as the Utah-Idaho people gave their decision, Pres. Walker suffered a very severe sickness, and it left him with a heart ailment.

During the first World War, Pres. Walker acted as recruiting officer for the Government for, the Royal Air Force. He was a member of the National War Finance Committee of Canada, and also chairman of several War Loan drives.

He has always given his best to his family, his church, his community and his country.

"President Walker was one of our great Latter Day Saint Leaders. A man of strong views and unafraid to express them, firm in his testimony and sound in his doctrine; a man of vision and understanding, loyal to his church and his country he forged a place for himself in the life of his people and country."

"THE MEMORY OF HIS WELL SPENT LIFE WILL NEVER DIE."

Reed Walker of Moses Lake, Wash. Glen of Montreal and Bob of Calgary were all home for their fathers funeral and stayed with their mother Mrs. Fanny Walker for a few days after wards.

Mrs. Rutton of Muk River was a guest of Mrs. Frank Halls one day last week.

SYLVIA CHRISTENSEN

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Christensen chose an afternoon frock of dusty rose crepe with lace inserts and navy accessories, and a red rose corsage.

The grooms mother was unable to attend.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in Wrentham community hall where approximately 160 friends and relatives sat down to eat.

The brides table was decorated with white bells and pink and white streamers and was centered with a beautiful 3 tiered wedding cake.

The toast to the bride was presented by Bernard Selk with the groom responding.

Reception assistants included: Eva Stewart, Hazel Hirsche, Elaine Selk, Elaine Meyers, Marjorie Hirsche, Jean Jazsa, Lorna Erickson and Grace Wesley.

A wedding dance followed the reception.

For their honeymoon to points in the U. S. A. the bride changed to a tan and blue pie-n-pie suit matching her husbands. Her accessories were navy and her corsage was red roses.

Out of town guests were from; Taber, Milk River, Stirling, and other southern Alberta points.

The happy young couple will reside at Wrentham.

TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT JAMES H. WALKER

It came as a shock to those who knew That you had gone ere they could say adieu. Your departure from this earthly state Came sooner than we did anticipate. Now we are left with memories of you, A man of character, noble and true.

President: before us you lie in state, Having faithfully filled your second estate. We here assemble, our homage to pay To you who in truth has walked all your days Your life and actions all bear record As one who loved and served his Lord.

Is it wishful thinking to suppose That here in this service your spirit is close? Would it be feasible and right to think That here your spirit with your loved one's link? If God for us would the curtain part, We would know this truth within our heart.

President: in this last and fond farewell We would to all people, your virtues tell, Your faithful diligence and love of truth, Your devotion to God's Church from thy youth. You were ever responsive to God's call, And in loving service you gave your all.

You have left a choice posterity Who will honor your name eternally. How blessed are you and your family To be sealed together in eternity, For by the Gospel which they have embraced, The sting of death is forever erased.

This bereavement hour, though hard to bear, Has also its recompense elsewhere, For in the spirit world where you now dwell, To your three sons you will have much to tell. And Oh, how wonderful are those greetings When with your loved ones you are meeting

And though before our eyes the veil is drawn, We know that there will come an Easter Morn And in the dawn of that glorious day Our tears, our sorrows shall pass away, And within our arms we will enfold Those dear ones whom we now long to hold.

YOUR
IN ALBERTA

The Department of Public Works was organized in 1906 about a year after Alberta was formed as a Province. Its functions today are divided into two categories - the construction and maintenance of public buildings. Construction includes planning and supervising the erection of large buildings and the actual construction work on smaller projects. Maintenance covers a wide variety of activities including the manufacturing and repair of office furniture, cleaning and maintenance of government buildings care of grounds, the maintenance and servicing of government vehicles.

By the end of 1953, the Department held ownership, in the name of the Minister of Public Works, to 871 buildings throughout the Province. These range from such impressive structures as the Legislative, Natural Resources and Administration Buildings in Edmonton to modest forestry cabins scattered through the western and northern sections of Alberta. The Agriculture schools, the Institute of Technology and Art in Calgary, the sanatoria, Court Houses, and Titles' Offices, Jails, Mental Hospitals, Treasury Branches and Liquor Stores are examples of public buildings coming under the jurisdiction of the Department.

Within the past few years the Department has adopted a policy of centralizing Alberta Government offices for the convenience of the public. This is being carried out with the construction of "Provincial Buildings" in many towns and smaller cities throughout Alberta.

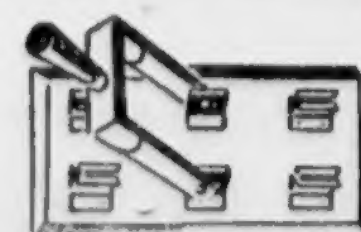

Construction work by the Department today is usually confined to institutions and smaller undertakings, while the larger projects are handled by tender. In certain cases, key craftsmen are sent from Edmonton, and other necessary labor is hired locally.

During 1953, the total expenditure for buildings and maintenance by the Department totalled $10,467,034. Of this sum, about 71 percent was for construction, 23 percent for maintenance, and 6 percent for furnishings and equipment.

Over the years from 1948 to 1953, the amount expended on construction was $32,708,000, for maintenance $11,286,000, with $3,222,578 spent on furnishings and equipment. The total for the six years was $47,216,490.

These expenditures provided and equipped many public buildings for which an urgent need had long been apparent, and included Provincial Buildings at seven Alberta centers Engineering Buildings, Rutherdale Library and Students' Union Building at the University of Alberta; the Fairview School of Agriculture; Aberhart Memorial Sanatorium; Alberta Office Building Calgary; Civil Defence Building, Edmonton; Cancer Clinic, Cerebral Palsy Clinic, New Land Titles' Building and the Administration Building also located in Edmonton.

Under the Maintenance Branch of the Department comes a large number of caretakers, electricians, plumbers, caretakers and grounds men. The Carpenter Shop turns out about $10,000 worth of furniture for government offices each month. The Paint Shop maintains a staff of 24 persons, while about 12 men are employed in the metal shop of the Department. 14 plumbers are responsible for the maintenance of plumbing and heating in Government buildings, and about 20 electricians, apprentices and helpers are required to carry out wiring on new construction as well as to maintain and repair wiring in existing offices.

The Department of Public Works employs about 942 people for the construction and maintenance of Alberta Government Buildings scattered throughout the Province. Upon them falls the responsibility of providing public buildings and giving these buildings the care they require.

SCHOOL REPORT

The students are eagerly looking forward to the Christmas holidays. The festive spirit will really be in the swing at the Christmas dance Thursday, Dec. 23. The students will be happy to welcome the older university and the working young people home and to the dance.

The first report cards for this term went out some time ago. Then all the parents had a rude awakening, they discovered just how their son or daughter has progressed so far. It proved to be a time of regret for some and prideful joy for others. Some students solemnly promised to make better marks next time and some gave up. Perhaps the student's New Years Resolution should be "I shall put my heart into my school work and make an honest attempt".
